Revocable Living Trusts vs Wills: Choosing the Right Estate Planning Tool in New York

Compassionate and accessible counsel clients can rely on.

Steven E. Glass is a skilled and dedicated problem solver with wide-ranging experience in estate planning and estate administration matters as well as real estate and corporate transactions. Mr. Glass advises clients on best and practical approaches for ensuring that their long-term planning goals are realized. He also assists fiduciaries in administering trusts and estates.

Clients value his ability to present complex issues in a clear manner, and his steadfast pursuit to obtaining positive results.

Mr. Glass' practice encompasses four main areas:

- Estate Planning:

preparing wills, advance directives, and various trusts, including living trusts and irrevocable life insurance trusts.

- Estate Administration:

specializing in estate administration from commencement to completion, including the preparation of probate and administration petitions and accompanying ancillary court documents, estate tax returns, formal and informal accountings, and final distribution of assets.

- Real Estate:

representing buyers and sellers in residential real estate transactions.

- Business:

entity formation, governance, transfers, and acquisitions and sales.
